

Text Here

Term 1 overview year 3 & 4 IELP 2021

Literacy	Reading: independent, guided reading; books that are taken home in their reader folder will be changed once the books have been read at home. Recount writing, narrative writing, Word study including spelling and grammar, and developing comprehension skills, Hand writing: using joined letters that are clearly formed and consistent in size.
Numeracy	Addition, Subtraction, Multiplication and Division, Place Value, multiplicative thinking, Time, financial maths, worded problems to aid mathematical vocabulary and understanding, Mental Math routines.
Science & Digital technology	In Science, Earth & Space is the topic for this term and the students will learn about the movement of Earth, the moon, and the sun to suggest explanations for everyday observational changes. Vito Mastrapasqua – Science teacher Students will explore digital systems including robotic software and hardware to design solutions to problems using coding and algorithms. Students will create and design interactive stories, quizzes or games and use robotics to bring their ideas to life. Students will communicate their digital projects through ethical means using safe online learning environments. Alisia King – Digital technology teacher
HASS	Environment: My home, my family, my language, Who/Where/What in the world? (geography), Animals and habitats, Chinese New Year, Harmony day, and Easter.
Health & wellbeing	Child Protection Curriculum - Right To be Safe, “Friends with Emmy” program – weeks 6 to 10, Bounce Back– Preventative whole-school social and emotional learning curriculum program to promote positive mental health, wellbeing, and resilience, Introception- Activities to raise awareness of body sensations to experience essential emotions and calming and relaxation Techniques. This includes a yoga lesson each Tuesday morning.
The Arts	Drama (readers theatre) to further develop their oral presentation, dialogue comprehension and expressive skills, dance, choir, visual art and craft.
Ongoing over the year	Celebrations, Cultural events throughout the world, School and class routines, practising Sun Safety, fortnightly assemblies, continuing to developing environment awareness including the weather, Seasons, clothes and colours.

-Miss Angela, room 17

